

Flying Jewels is a book that lives up to its title! Each photograph reveals not only Ann Maddock's impressive photography skills but the artistry of each bird's unique plumage and design. Unlike some photography books, the addition of informative text makes this a good read as well.

The jewel-like colors in the photographs pop off the page and for one moment in time, you are there in the thicket with Ann admiring this tiny bird in all of its many manifestations. Truly worthy of coffee table status!
-Dr. Hilda Roselli

I'm floored at the quality of the photos you've included! Simply beautiful! I think anyone who loves birds--and especially hummingbirds--will fall in love with this book. It's the kind of book you want to hang on the wall! -
Karen Lebing

What a piece of art, patience, photography talent and an enjoyable read. We thoroughly enjoyed your book! Sure gave some insight into what it takes to collect all the information needed to put such a wonderful presentation together. You must be very proud of your endeavor! -John and Pat Rice

I received my beautiful book today. Wowser! Each page is magnificent! -Caroline Pearce

I just got my book! It is just amazing. The layout and photos are just superb and I'm reading it right now. I love your personal stories integrated with facts about the birds! -Linda O'Neill

We've received your book today and it is truly amazing! We all didn't realize how beautiful hummingbirds are. We love your book! -Laura T.

I loved all the stunning photographs and learning all the fun facts about the size, descriptions, and habits of the hummingbirds. -Jen Whitt